TO THE GENTLEMEN OF THE PRESS — RADIO — TV

As we prepare for the opening of our fourth season, we of the Cleveland Browns want to express to all of you our sincere appreciation for the splendid support you have given us during our three championship years.

We thank you for this support which has won for us such an enviable position in the national sports scene. It is the reflections mirrored in your columns, sportcasts and telecasts that have guided our course.

We hope we continue to merit your support during the 1949 season as we have in the three preceding years. We firmly believe we have developed "The World's Greatest Football Team." We hope you and our fans will agree.

ARTHUR B. McBRIDE, Owner

Everything considered, Arthur B. McBride probably can be termed the most unusual owner in the major professional football leagues.

With him a championship team comes under the heading of civic duty. This obligation to the community even supercedes personal pride, of which he blandly admits he has plenty.

And, concerning financial success, McBride expects to reap none from his sponsorship of the Browns in the All-America Football Conference. He claims he'll be content to break even on the venture as long as the spectators leave each game tingling with thrills and nursing the satisfaction that they got their money's worth.

McBride, like thousands of other members of the "Subway Alumni" of Notre Dame, became interested in football by following the fortunes of the Fighting Irish.

He sent his two sons—Arthur Jr. and Edward—to South Bend and, although he didn't know a touchdown from a shoulder pad, the senior McBride made it his business to be on hand to cheer the Notre Dame teams wherever they played.

In 1941, a little more than a year after he became so fond of the gridiron sport, McBride attempted to purchase the Cleveland Rams from Danny Reeves but was turned down.

McBride's determination to own a football team grew in 1943 when the Rams suspended operations because of wartime conditions. By that time he had become a rabid follower of the play-for-pay gridders. When the Rams halted operations, he was annoyed at being deprived of his favorite local sports attraction.

When the Cleveland franchise in the All-America Conference was available in 1944, McBride was in a receptive mood. There had always been rumors that the Rams some day might leave Cleveland and he wanted to assure himself and the city's gridiron fans that they would have a pro football representative.

His first act after acquiring the franchise was to sign Paul Brown as general manager and coach. Why did he go after the youthful ex-Ohio State and Great Lakes mentor? "I believed that Paul Brown was the best coach in the business. Moreover, I knew that he had tremendous popularity throughout Ohio. Whenever I go into any business, I want the best. Even if I only own a peanut stand, my stand has to be better than that of the man across the street."

This policy of aspiring to excell his competitors and to tackle impossible tasks has paid off handsomely to the ex-Chicagoan who was selling newspapers at the age of six and earning $10,000 as a newspaper circulation executive 17 years later.

In 1913 McBride moved to Cleveland as circulation director of the Cleveland News where he remained until 1931 when he went into business for himself. Since then he has purchased large real estate holdings in Cleveland as well as in Chicago, Miami and Coral Gables, has become co-owner with Dan Sherby of the taxicabs in Cleveland and Akron, and has numerous other business interests.

Besides his two sons, the Browns' owner also has a daughter, Jane. McBride's athletic endeavor is confined to golf, shooting consistently in the low 80's.

PAUL E. BROWN, Coach & General Manager

When Paul Brown came to Cleveland a little over three years ago, he pledged himself to bring to the citizens of Ohio the best in major league football. How well he has kept this pledge is best evidenced by the three consecutive championship teams he has fielded—spirited teams, colorful teams, desirous teams.

Brown hopes to continue to send out winning clubs—to reach his goal of creating a grid dynasty. He refuses to support, or even consider, the theory that Cleveland's continued supremacy in the All-America Conference is harmful for the league. "Winning is not an evil thing", says Brown. "Winning fairly is an admirable accomplishment, no matter what the field of endeavor. I am a football teacher. If we win before 10,000 fans, that's swell. If we lose before 80,000, that's awful."

His successes at Massillon High School, Ohio State, Great Lakes and now with the Browns testify to the soundness of his methods. The Brown technique and philosophy are now thoroughly familiar to those who have watched his teams in action. Even in the pro ranks they reflect a definite touch of amateurism and that's as Brown wishes.

He insists that his players give it the old college try every minute they are on the field. Fierce desire is no mere figure of speech when Brown's the coach. His athletes are well-groomed in fundamentals. They look like athletes and they are fast. In other words, they have that "lean and hungry look" to borrow a Brownism.

Brown, a lean and hungry looking hombre himself, was born in Norwalk, Ohio, on September 7, 1908, but his family moved to Massillon when he was 12. In high school he quarterbacked the team for two years in a row although he never weighed more than 120 poiunds He enrolled at Ohio State University, but when he realized his weight might eliminate him from Big Ten competition, he transferred to Miami University. There he was the regular signal caller for two years—an above average passer and a good runner.

After graduating from Miami, Brown coached for two years at Severn Prep, a preparatory school for the U. S. Naval Academy. One of his proteges there was the famous Slade Cutter of Navy.

In 1932, Brown returned to Massillon as the high school football and basketball coach. The Tigers had been in the athletic doldrums, but Brown produced a good team in his first season, winning six, losing three and tying one. Next year Massillon won eight and dropped two and in 1934 it won all but one of 10 contests. During the next six years Brown's teams played 60 games, winning 58, dropping one and tying one. They annexed six straight state championships. In Brown's nine seasons at Massillon, the Tigers scored 3,202 points to their opponents' 339. The 1940 Massillon machine, judged by Brown to be his best there, tallied 477 points to the enemy's six.

When Brown first came to Massillon, the capacity of the school's stadium was 5,000. In 1938 a new stadium seating 21,000 was erected and wasn't large enough. In 1940 Massillon played before 175,000 fans including 161,000 at eight home contests. Annually Massillon outdraws every college in the state with the exception of Ohio State.

PAUL BROWN'S COACHING RECORD

		Won	Lost	Tied	Points	Opp. Points
Massillon High School	1932–1940	81	7	2	3,202	339
Ohio State University	1941–1943	18	8	1	653	411
Great Lakes Naval Stat.	1944–1945	15	5	2	569	263
Cleveland Browns	1946–1948	41	3	1	1,238	493

Following a vigorous campaign by the Ohio State high school coaches' association, Brown was signed as the Ohio State mentor in 1941, replacing Francis Schmidt. In his first season the Buckeyes won six, lost one and tied one. In 1942, the Bucks were acclaimed Big Ten and national collegiate kings as they compiled a record of nine victories and one loss. This record won for him "The Coach of the Year" award. The 1943 squad, which could have been one of the mightiest grid machines in college history, was wrecked when all the 1942 stars and a great freshman roster were called into the armed services. Playing against teams which were loaded with naval trainees, the 1943 Buckeyes gave Brown his first and only losing season as a coach.

In 1944 Brown himself enlisted in the Navy. He was commissioned a lieutenant and appointed athletic officer at Great Lakes where he coached football. His 1944 Sailors won nine, lost two and tied one. The 1945 outfit, loaded with green youngsters, got off to a bad start, losing three and tying one in its first four starts. However, the team under Brown's guidance came along nicely to win its last six in a row including a 39 to 7 victory over Notre Dame for 1945's greatest grid upset.

His first year in the pro ranks he moulded a mixture of professional veterans and inexperienced college kids into the first All-America Conference Championship team. He repeated again in 1947, and in 1948 piloted his club to an undefeated season, establishing an All-Time Major League mark of 15 victories and winning his third consecutive title. Paralleling his Massillon experiences, even the huge Cleveland Municipal Stadium was taxed to its capacity when an overflow crowd of 82,769 fans streamed through its gates to witness the Brown-San Francisco contest last year—an all-time professional football single game attendance record.

Paul Brown and winning football are not strangers—they're partners.

Brown is married and has three sons—Robin, Mike and Pete.

BLANTON COLLIER, Backfield Coach

From Paris (Ky.) High School comes Blanton Collier whose technical knowledge of football made a profound impression on Paul Brown in 1945 when Collier was on his staff at Great Lakes. The quiet-mannered Kentuckian is a keen football student who takes the game seriously and who is a good diagnostician. He is credited with devising many of the pass defense patterns which made the Browns tough to gain on through the air.

Collier is a great teacher of football—determined but quietly patient. He is solid in football fundamentals, meticulous in technique. Perfection in play execution is his goal. "A perfect machine is made of perfect and matched components," says Collier. "That is why it is so necessary, that details, no matter how small, be given full consideration."

Collier was born in Millersburg, Ky. on July 2, 1906 and starred at Georgetown (Ky.) College. He went to Paris High School directly from college and served as athletic director and football and basketball coach for 16 years before enlisting in the Navy in 1943. During that period his Paris football teams won three conference championships and his cagers annexed seven league crowns.

Although Collier had accepted a post on the coaching staff of one of the nation's large universities after his release from the Navy, Brown persuaded him to cast his lot with him in the pro league. Collier is married and the father of three daughters, Carolyn, Kay and Jane.

WILBUR "WEEB" EWBANK, Tackle Coach

Weeb was born in Richmond, Indiana on May 6, 1907. Attended Morton High School there, where he starred in football, basketball and baseball. Weeb was named captain of all three sports in his senior year.

He entered Miami University (Ohio) in 1924, where he again was a three sport star, and again was named captain of the baseball squad. On graduating from Miami in 1928, Weeb was named athletic director and head coach of all sports at Van Wert (Ohio) High School. At Van Wert he had one string of 21 straight victories, two undefeated years, and one year undefeated and unscored on.

He returned to Miami University as a member of the athletic staff in 1930. During his 13 years there he taught in the major physical education and coaching schools, coached all sports at the University high school, was head varsity basketball coach and assisted in football.

He enlisted in the Navy in 1943, and later assisted Paul Brown in football at Great Lakes. He also coached the Great Lakes basketball team during the 1945-46 season.

In Spring of 1946 Ewbank accepted the assistant football and head basketball coaching assignment at Brown University, leaving, however, in the spring of 1947 to go to Washington University in St. Louis as head football coach. Weeb won 14, lost 4 games there in two years, having one of the nation's best 1948 records with 9 wins and 1 loss.

He turned down two other head coaching jobs to return to coaching with Brown. With the Browns, in addition to handling the tackles, he is in charge of talent scouting. Weeb is married and has three daughters, Luanne, Nancy and Jan.

RICHARD F. GALLAGHER, End Coach

Dick Gallagher is tutor of the team's brilliant array of wingmen. Gallagher came to the Browns from William and Mary College where he was head basketball and baseball mentor and an assistant in football. He is a native of Ironton, Ohio where he was born on October 28, 1909. After starring in three sports there—football, basketball and track—he went on to athletic stardom at Kentucky Wesleyan College.

Upon graduating from College, Gallagher coached for two years at Pedro (O.) High School and then returned to Ironton as head football and basketball coach in 1933. During his seven year tenure at Ironton he became a good friend of Paul Brown and John Brickels who were high school coaching contemporaries although their teams never opposed Gallagher's.

In 1940 Gallagher accepted a coaching post at William and Mary as an assistant in football, basketball and baseball. He enlisted in the Navy in 1942 and was discharged as a lieutenant commander in 1945. Following his return to William and Mary he was elevated to head coach in baseball and basketball. Gallagher is married and the father of two daughters, Kay and Patricia.

FRITZ HEISLER, Guard Coach

When Paul Brown greeted his first squad of candidates at Massillon High School in the autumn of 1932, a 135-pound youngster named Fritz Heisler was trying out for the team. The boy clinched a first string berth on that club and was a regular on the 1933 eleven which was the first of Massillon's super teams.

Heisler, born in Massillon on May 18, 1915, had known Brown long before he reached high school. When Brown was quarterbacking Massillon's team, Heisler as a grade school pupil used to watch the team's practice sessions daily. Always interested in the technical phases of the game, Heisler used to ask Brown all sorts of questions about football.

From Massillon, Heisler went to Miami University where he won three football letters. Although weighing but 155 pounds, he held down a guard position and was chosen on several of the All-Ohio squads. At Miami, Heisler majored in physical education with the view of coaching.

Immediately after Heisler graduated in 1938, he was signed as a coaching assistant by Brown, then still at Massillon. When Brown moved to Ohio State in 1941, he took Heisler along as freshman football coach. On the Buckeyes' 1942 national championship team were such outstanding performers as Bill Hackett, Bill Willis, Tom James, Gene Fekete and others who had been freshman under Heisler the previous season.

In March, 1942 Heisler was commissioned an ensign in the Navy. He coached at DePauw University in 1943 where he was stationed with the Navy's V-5 Cadet Unit. Heisler joined the Browns in January, 1946 following his discharge from the Navy as a full lieutenant. Married, he has one son, Bryan.

PLAYER BIOGRAPHIES

ADAMLE, TONY (adam-lee) FULLBACK

Born in Fairmont, W. Va., May 15, 1924. Played football at Collinwood High School in Cleveland where he won All-State and All-City honors. He played at fullback in High School and during his freshman year at Ohio State before entering the Army Air Forces where he served for more than three and a half years.

Returning to Ohio State in 1946, he was used at center, starting each of the Buckeye's 1946 games and playing 413 minutes during the season. He intercepted two passes that helped Ohio State whip Northwestern 39-27.

He decided to play pro football early in 1947, and when he reported to the Browns' Training Camp, Coach Paul Brown, mindful of Adamle's speed, decided to return him to the fullback position where he has distinguished himself the last two years.

Adamle is married, and lives in Columbus, Ohio.

AGASE, ALEX (a'-ga-see) GUARD

Born March 27, 1922 in Chicago, Ill. He starred for Evanston (Ill.) Township High School before entering the University of Illinois in 1941. He is one of the few players in collegiate history to have been selected on the All-American team for three years. He was picked in 1942 and 1946 while at Illinois and in 1943 at Purdue where he was a marine trainee. He captained the Illini in 1946 when they annexed the Big Nine championship and humiliated U. C. L. A. in the Rose Bowl contest. He had been voted by Illinois alumni and newspapermen as the greatest lineman in Illinois History. His nose has been broken four times while playing college football. Served in the Marine Corps three years and led the extreme right flank platoon in the invasion of Okinawa. He was secured by the Browns from the Chicago Rockets in a trade in May of 1948. The Browns sent halfback Bill Lund and Joe Signaigo to the Rockets for Agase and tackle Forrest Grigg.

Agase is single and lives in Evanston.

BOEDEKER, WILLIAM (Bill) (bo'-deck-cur) HALFBACK

Born in Milwaukee, Wis., March 7, 1924. He was acquired by the Browns early in 1947 in a trade with the Chicago Rockets which sent end John Harrington to the Chicago team. Played on the Fort Wayne, Indiana, North Side High School team which won the state championship in 1940. He attended DePaul University for a brief spell before enlisting in the Army Infantry, where he served with distinction for almost three years. He was awarded the Bronze Star and Purple Heart.

Although he never played college football, Boedeker displayed great running ability in his three years of professional football. In 1946 he got his first great football thrill by scoring in the final 60 seconds against the New York Yankees to give his mates a 17-17 tie with their favored opponent. Since joining the Browns he has displayed the same fine running. In 1947 he carried the ball 31 times gaining 194 yards for an average of 6.26 yards per carry. During that season he scored three touchdowns on his first four plays from rushing. In the 1948 season he picked up 254 yards by rushing in 78 plays and received 13 passes for 237 yards. He is completing his education at DePaul University.

Bill is single and makes his home at Fort Wayne.

CANNAVINO, MICHAEL (Scutch) (can'-o-vee'-no) HALFBACK

Born in Cleveland, Ohio, May 17, 1925. Played his high school football on Collinwood High championship teams of 1941-42. After service in the Army Tank Corps he entered Ohio State University, playing both tailback and wingback in his three varsity years. Used largely on defense, the "little dynamiter" packed the ferocity of a two-hundred pounder. "Scutch" was a four letterman in football, but also picked up monograms in basketball and track. Is married and makes his home in Cleveland.

COWAN, ROBERT (Bob) (cow'-an) HALFBACK

Born in Fort Wayne, Indiana, January 2, 1923. Cowan played with Brown teammate Bill Boedeker for North Side High School in Fort Wayne in 1940 when their team won the state title. Captained the team in his senior year. Also played basketball and won the state 100 yard dash title. Altogether Cowan won 11 letters in high school. Played one season for Bo McMillin at Indiana in 1942 before entering the Army. Following discharge early in 1946, Cowan returned to school and played for the Hoosiers that year. One of his Indiana teammates in 1942 was Lou Saban, captain of the Browns.

In 1947, Cowan displayed great promise as a runner carrying the ball 38 times for 181 yards before a knee injury benched him. That year in the preseason game with Baltimore, Cowan dashed 43 yards for a touchdown. In the first game against the New York Yankees, he took a pass from Otto Graham and eluded several defenders, racing 35 yards for a touchdown. Cowan's speed and sure hands make him a fine pass receiver. In the 1948 season he received 15 passes for a total of 265 yards and four touchdowns.

He is married and lives with his wife and son, Craig, in Fort Wayne.

DERRICOTTE, GENE HALFBACK

Born in Fostoria, Ohio, on June 14, 1926. Gene was a great star at Defiance High School where he played halfback for three years, captaining the team in his senior year. He was named All-State halfback in 1944 and previous to that time sparked Defiance High School to a State Championship in 1942. In addition to his football playing, Gene lettered twice in basketball, playing a forward. At high school Gene's class grades rivaled his prowess on the field.

Was president of the Junior Class in 1943 and graduated as valedictorian. Gene saw service with the Army Air Corps being discharged with the rank of second lieutenant.

He played halfback on Michigan's great teams under Fritz Crisler and Benny Oosterbaan. Gene played a great defensive game for the Wolverines. Is single and still makes his home in Defiance, Ohio.

EVANS, RAYMOND (Sugar) — TACKLE

Born in Electra, Texas, January 10, 1924. Was football and track star at Odessa (Texas) High School. Lettered four times at Texas Mines playing fullback his first year. After a hitch in the Seabees, resumed his football career as a tackle and was named by the coaches as the best offensive and defensive tackle in the conference. In 1948 he won a berth on the Associated Press Little All-American Squad. In addition to four varsity letters, Evans has compiled an enviable record in student activities. He was president of the student body and named to "Who's Who Among American University and College Students". Evans is married and has a daughter, Sharron Lynn. Lives in Odessa, Texas.

FENIELLO, GARRY (fen'-ee-el'-o) — GUARD

Was born in Connellsville, Pa. on October 17, 1925. He was a three sport star at Connellsville High School, lettering in football, basketball and track. He was named All-State guard in 1942. He enrolled at Pitt in 1943 and played for one year before going into the Army Medical Corps. He was discharged after thirty months of service and entered Wake Forest College where he played under D. C. Walker. Garry later played with the McKeesport Ironman, Pennsylvania Pro League champions. He was married last March.

FINNIN, THOMAS R. — TACKLE

Was born in Chicago, Illinois, September 28, 1927. Played his prep football at St. Ignatius High School in Chicago, and one year at St. Augustine High School in San Diego, California. Upon graduating from the latter, he entered the University of Detroit where he played for Chuck Baer for three years, and was voted Most Valuable player during the 1948 season. He received his biggest thrill when Detroit defeated the University of Tulsa in 1946, which was the only loss sustained by Tulsa that year.

Tom stands 6'2½" and weighs in at 225 pounds. He is single and makes his home in Chicago, Illinois.

FOLLIN, DWIGHT C. (Blackjack) — CENTER

Born in Lakemore, Ohio, June 18, 1922. Prepped at Kent (O.) Roosevelt High School, playing end and tackle, where he gained All-Western Reserve League honors in 1940 and 1941. Entered the Navy Air Service in 1941. Played center for the star-studded Georgia Pre-Flight grid powerhouse in 1943. With Kent State he stood out as a linebacker and was very adept at ball snapping. Is single and makes his home in Kent, Ohio.

GATSKI, FRANK (Gunner) — CENTER

Born in Farmington, West Virginia, March 13, 1922. Played four years as center on his high school grid team and two years of baseball. Gatski entered Marshall College where he was varsity center for three years. He then entered the Army Infantry where he remained for three and a half years, including 18 months in the ETO. Upon discharge he returned to Marshall for his degree. Gatski's perpetual grin has won him many nicknames including "Gunner" and "Joe Palooka". "Gunner", however, seems to have the pole position.

At contract signing time in 1947, Gatski's interest was not in how much money he received, but how much football he could play. When Paul Brown told him that it was entirely up to him, the determined "Gunner" went out and soon won the starting assignment.

Gatski is single and lives in Grant Town, West Virginia.

GAUDIO, ROBERT (Bob) (gow'-dee-oh) — GUARD

Born in Ashtabula, Ohio, July 13, 1925. Won three letters in football at Shaw High School, East Cleveland, being chosen on the All-District and All-Ohio teams in 1942. He played on the freshman team at Ohio State under Paul Brown before entering the Army Air Corps. He served for almost three years in the Army and following his discharge, he returned to Ohio State and played on the varsity in 1946.

He decided to enter his father's contracting business in 1947 and chose to play professional football. He has developed into a sound and strong lineman. This will be his third season with the Browns.

Bob is single and lives in East Cleveland.

GILLOM, HORACE (Horse) — END

Born in Roanoke, Alabama, March 3, 1921, Horace is one of the greatest all-around athletes in Ohio history. He played for Paul Brown in Massillon High School in 1939 and 1940, and has been described by Brown as "the greatest high school player I ever coached". Gillom's running and kicking feats are still legendary in the Stark County area which was the cradle of professional football. Won three football letters and three basketball awards. In basketball as in football, Gillom was an All-State performer.

Enrolled at Ohio State after high school graduation, but never played football there as he entered the Army in 1942. Served in the European theatre and won three Bronze Stars. After his discharge in 1945 he enrolled at the University of Nevada, played there in 1946. Gillom's long distance punting and his great pass receiving and fine defensive play with Nevada gained him the plaudits of opposing coaches as well as west coast sports writers. He was one of the leading collegiate punters of the nation in 1946.

He started at left end for the College All Stars against the Chicago Bears in 1947, and was one of the stars in the Collegians' 16-0 victory over the pros. Horace plays professional basketball during the winter.

He is married and father of a daughter, Cynthia. Still lives in Massillon.

GRAHAM, OTTO (Otts) — QUARTERBACK

Born in Waukegan, Illinois, December 6, 1921. Otto is recognized as one of the best T-formation quarterbacks in football. His accurate passing and smart generalship have been leading factors in the Browns' march to three All-America Championships. Three times he has been chosen for the All-Conference Team. In 1947 he received the award for the most valuable player in the All-America Conference in a poll of the coaches. In 1948 he shared this same award with Frankie Alberts of the 49'ers.

He holds many of the individual passing marks of the All-America Conference, and in his first year with the Browns established a pro record when he had but five of his passes intercepted. The following is his three-year passing record.

	Passes Attempted	Passes Completed	Had Intercepted	Yards Gained	Touchdown Passes	Pct. Completed
1946	174	95	5	1,834	17	.546
1947	269	163	11	2,753	25	.606
1948	333	173	15	2,713	25	.520
TOTAL	776	431	31	7,300	67	.555

An All-State performer at Waukegan High School, Graham went on to stardom at Northwestern where he became an All-America football player and one of the best all-around athletes in the history of the Evanston institution. With the Wildcats he was a triple threat performer whose feats in 1943 gained him the Chicago Tribune trophy as the most valuable player in the Western Conference. He established a new conference passing mark in 1942 with 89 successful passes. Against Michigan that season he completed 20 out of 29 aerials. His three year mark at Northwestern was 157 completions out of 321 attempts. He also won All-America honors as a basketball player at Northwestern. Graham twice has played with the College All-Stars in the Chicago Tribune's annual classic, and in both of these contests he paced the Collegians to surprise victories over the pros. In the 1943 game, when the Collegians whipped the Washington Redskins 27-7, Graham returned an intercepted pass for 95 yards and a touchdown, and also blocked out two men to shake teammate Bob Steuber loose on a 50 yard punt return for another touchdown. Against the Los Angeles Rams in 1946, Graham passed to Elroy Hirsch for a touchdown in the College All Stars' 16 to 0 triumph.

Graham, who will be playing his fourth year with the Browns, is married and the father of one son, Duane. He makes his home in Bay Village, a suburb of Cleveland.

GRIGG, FORREST (Chubby) — TACKLE

Born in El Dorado, Ark., January 10, 1926. Was secured by the Browns in May of 1948 from the Chicago Rockets together with guard Alex Agase in exchange for halfback Bill Lund and rookie guard Joe Signaigo. Griggs is one of the biggest men in the All-America Football Conference. Starred for Longview (Texas) High School and played for two seasons at Tulsa University. He was chosen on the All-Missouri Valley Team and gained honorable mention on several All-America squads in 1945. In 1946 he was with the Buffalo Bills, but was traded to the Rockets halfway through the 1947 season. Coach Paul Brown stated that "his acquisition of Griggs was the best deal he ever made".

Chubby developed into one of football's greatest defensive tackles last Fall, his first season with the Browns, and the 280 pound Texan probably rates more fan attention than any playing lineman in the game.

Griggs was married this last Spring and makes his home in Longview, Texas.

GROZA, LOUIS R. (The Toe) (grow'-zuh) TACKLE

Born in Martins Ferry, Ohio on January 25, 1924. In 1946, his first season of professional football, this husky lineman who never played collegiate football, led the All-America Conference in scoring with 84 points, all points being scored through field goals and points after touchdowns. That year his 13 field goals broke an all-time pro record of 10 established by Jack Manders of the Chicago Bears in 1934. This mark has since been cracked by Ben Agajanian of Los Angeles who booted 15 field goals in 1947.

Groza, his first year with the Browns, was used almost exclusively as a kicker, but has been the team's number one offensive left tackle since the latter part of 1947. Last year he again led Cleveland scoring with 75 points which included a 53 yard field goal which tied the All-America Conference record.

"The Toe" played tackle for three years at Martins Ferry High School. An older brother first brought out his kicking talent on a miniature gridiron in the family's back yard. Lou won 10 high school letters, three each in football and basketball and four in baseball. Served as captain of each team in his senior year. He was selected on the All-Valley team twice, in 1940 and 1941, chosen All-State tackle in 1941, and was co-captain in the Ohio-West Virginia All-Star Game of that year. In 1941 he was also named to the All-Ohio Basketball squad and was selected as the most valuable player on the state championship team.

He entered Ohio State and won a freshman letter before entering the Army. His three years of service included five months on Okinawa, two in Hawaii and six in the Philippines. Lou tells us that he kept in shape in the South Pacific by erecting a goal post and practicing place-kicking whenever he had a few leisure hours. On leaving the Army, Groza returned to Ohio State to complete work toward his degree, but decided to forsake college football for the professional ranks. Groza, one of the greatest place kickers in football today, hopes to regain the place kicking title this season. He is a brother of Alex Groza, star center for the University of Kentucky basketball team, is single and resides in Martins Ferry.

HAZELWOOD, THEODORE E. (Ted) — TACKLE

Born in Silverwood, Indiana, April 25, 1924. At Frankfort (Ind.) High School, Hazelwood made All-State in three sports. From high school he went to Purdue, starring at fullback on the freshman squad. Served with the Marine Corps from 1942 to 1945. Spent 18 months in the South Pacific and was awarded the Purple Heart. Upon his discharge as a lieutenant, he enrolled at North Carolina University where he was converted to a tackle. Won All-Southern honors in 1945 and 1946. His biggest football thrill was his recovery of the fumble that enabled North Carolina to beat Navy 21-14. That was in 1946. Accidentally shot himself last year while participating in his favorite hobby—target pistol shooting. The bullet which entered his thigh, stopped him for three weeks. He returned to the gridiron apparently unaffected, and showed his usual fine brand of ball. Ted is married and makes his home in Frankfort, Indiana.

HOUSTON, LINDELL (Lin) (hew'-ston) — GUARD

Born in Carbondale, Illinois, January 11, 1921. Played high school, college, and pro football for Paul Brown. At Massillon (O.) High School, Houston was on a team that lost but one game and tied one contest in two years. He was chosen on the All-Ohio high school squad and at Ohio State made the All-Big Ten teams in his sophomore year and most of the All-America selections in 1942 when the Bucks were Western Conference and national champions.

He started for the College All-Stars against the Chicago Bears in the Chicago Tribune's 1944 charity contest. He served in the Army from May, 1943 until February, 1946, and was stationed in New Guinea and the Philippines. He coached the Fort Bragg football team in 1943 to a very successful season, winning 5 of 6 games played.

Lin is one of the best blockers in pro football and with the Browns is used mainly on offense. This is his fourth season with the Cleveland Club.

He is married and has two children, a daughter, Linda Lee, and a son, Roger Alan. He makes his home in Stow, Ohio.

HUMBLE, WELDON (Hum) — GUARD

Born in San Antonio, Texas, April 24, 1921. He became the property of the Browns during the 1947 training season in a trade with the Baltimore Colts. In this trade, one of the biggest of the All-America Conference, Brown sent five players to the Colts for Humble. Was All-District choice at Brackenridge High School in San Antonio where he won football, basketball, track and swimming letters. He played at Rice Institution in 1941, 1942 and 1946, being selected on every All-America team his last year there. He was voted the most outstanding lineman in the Southwest Conference and received the Most Valuable Player award in 1946. He played in the 1947 Orange Bowl game against Tennessee.

While stationed by the Marines with a V-12 unit at Southwestern Louisiana Institute in 1943, he captained an undefeated football team that won the Oil Bowl game. He was a First Lieutenant in the Marine Infantry and was awarded the Bronze Star. A track man at Rice, he participated in the weight events and anchored the relay team. He started for the College All-Stars against the Chicago Bears in 1947 and was voted the outstanding lineman on the team.

In the off season when Hum isn't busting broncos, he works for a bank. He is married and lives in Houston, Texas.

JAMES, TOM (Red) — HALFBACK

Born in Canton, Ohio, September 16, 1923. He played High School, college and pro football under Paul Brown. At Massillon (O.) High School, was chosen on the All-State team in 1940. That 1940 Massillon club was probably Brown's finest scholastic eleven. James followed Coach Brown to Ohio State and played on the 1942 Buckeye squad that won the Western Conference and national championships.

He served for more than three years in the Army including the invasion of Okinawa and returned to Ohio State in 1946. In 1947 he played for the Detroit Lions, of the National Football League, but broke his arm in an early season contest and was inactive the balance of that year. In 1948 he signed with the Cleveland Browns and played a great defensive half.

Tommy is married and lives in Massillon.

JONES, EDGAR (Special Delivery) — HALFBACK

Born in Scranton, Pennsylvania, May 6, 1920. Was three sport star—football, basketball and baseball—at Scranton High School. Edgar earned his nickname of "Special Delivery" early in his football career because of his specialty of turning in long touchdown runs. He played football for three seasons at the University of Pittsburgh. In his first college appearance, he threw a 50 yard pass in the final two minutes of the game to enable his team to lick Carnegie Tech. He holds the college record for most yards on pass interceptions, having returned six aerials for 215 yards in 1941.

He entered the Navy in April, 1942 and was discharged in October, 1945. He played with the San Diego Navy squad in 1942, with Honolulu Navy teams in 1943 and 1944 and with Fleet City Blue Jackets in 1945. He managed Receiving Barracks baseball nine at Honolulu and directed such stars as Barney McCosky, Johnny Lucadello and others. He played one game with the Chicago Bears in 1945 and almost upset ex-Cleveland Rams with a great one-man performance.

Edgar has continued his fine running with the Browns for the last three years. In 1946 he gained 539 yards in 77 attempts for an average of 7 yards. In 1947 he carried the ball 69 times for 443 yards, an average of 6.42 yards. In 1948 he gained 400 yards on 100 attempts and received 14 passes, 5 of them for touchdowns. He has played important roles in each of Cleveland's three championship contests. In 1946 his sensational diving catch of a pass from Otto Graham late in the game proved to be the turning point of that meeting.

In 1947 he scored Cleveland's second touchdown in the game against the Yankees, and in 1948 he scored two touchdowns in the championship game against the Buffalo Bills.

He is married and makes his home in Cleveland.

JONES, WILLIAM (Dub) — HALFBACK

Born in Arcadia, La., December 29, 1924. Jones came to the Cleveland Browns early in 1948 when the Cleveland Club swapped the draft rights to Bob Chappuis to Brooklyn for which club Jones played in 1947. Previously he was with the Miami Seahawks. Played for the state championship team at Ruston (La.) High School in 1941 and was chosen on the All-State honor eleven. He starred at Tulane University in 1943 and 1944, gaining a position on the All-Southeastern Conference team and most of the All American selections in 1944.

He served for three years in the Navy aboard a submarine. Dub played left halfback for Miami and tailback in Brooklyn's single wing. Since moving to the Browns, Dub played a bang-up game at right halfback. Jones has height, speed and is a great pass receiver.

He is married and has one son, William, Jr., and makes his home in Ruston, La.

KEENEY, HUEY C. (Dog) — HALFBACK

Was born in Mt. Pleasant, Texas, August 21, 1928. In High School at Mt. Pleasant he participated in football and track and captained both of the teams in his senior year. He won three monograms in football where he played left half, and was voted the most valuable player for two years as well as being named to the All-District squad.

Huey C. (the "C" is for Cleveland) played four years at Rice Institute under Jess Neely and was named to the All-Conference team for three of those years. The 1946 Rice squad won the Conference title that year, and it was Huey's interception of Bobby Layne's pass in the last minute of the game with Texas U. that ended the latter's last scoring threat. Weldon Humble played with Rice in that game. On January 1, 1947, "Dog" played brilliantly in the Orange Bowl game and set a punting record of 44.1 yards average for that contest.

Was married this spring, and is making his home in Houston, Texas.

LAHR, WARREN (Warnie) (lar) — HALFBACK

Born in Mt. Zion, Pa., September 5, 1923. At West Wyoming (Pa.) High School, Lahr lettered in football, basketball and track. In track, he participated in the dashes, broad jump and javelin. He entered Western Reserve University in Cleveland in 1941 and played there in 1942, 1946 and 1947, time being taken out in 1942 to 1945 for service in the Navy.

Lahr, a great running back, still rates his 1942 game with the University of Detroit as the one that gave him his greatest thrill. In that game he moved plenty of leather and scored two touchdowns, enabling Western Reserve to gain a 12-12 deadlock with the favored Detroit Club. In 1947 he made All-Ohio selections and was voted the most valuable member of the team. Injuries kept him out of football in 1948, but he is again sound and is expected to develop into a good ball carrier.

He is married and makes his home in Wyoming, Pa.

LAVELLI, DANTE (Glue Fingers) (la-vell'-ee) END

Born in Hudson, Ohio, February 13, 1923. Although he had played in but three college games prior to joining the Browns in 1946, Lavelli has developed into one of the outstanding players in the All America Conference. In 1946 he was the leading receiver of the Conference and in 1947 he finished second to his "Touchdown Twin", Mac Speedie. Twice he has been chosen on the All-Conference team. In 1946 he took a pass from Otto Graham in the last few minutes to score the winning touchdown as Cleveland downed New York 14 to 9 for its first Conference championship. In an exhibition game with the Baltimore Colts in 1948, Dante came up with a fractured leg which kept him out of most of the 1948 games. Dante has great speed, a wonderful change of pace and fine deception in eluding pass defenders.

	Passes Received	Yardage Gained	Touchdown Passes
1946	40	843	8
1947	49	799	9
1948	25	463	5
TOTALS:	114	2105	22

Quarterbacked his Hudson High School team to county championship and also lettered in basketball and track. Started Ohio State's 1942 season at left halfback, but was injured in the Southern California game and saw little service thereafter.

He entered the Army in 1943 and served in France, Belgium and Germany. He is popularly referred to as "the people's choice" because he is one of the handsomest and best liked boys on the Browns' roster. This will be Dante's fourth season with the Cleveland Browns.

He is married and makes his home in Lakewood, Ohio.

LEWIS, CLIFF (Lou) QUARTERBACK

Born in Cleveland, Ohio, March 22, 1923. Lewis was an all-scholastic football and baseball star at Lakewood, High School. He spent one season at Staunton Military Academy where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball. He made the varsity squad at Duke University in his freshman season and was a regular the next year before he entered the Navy. Cliff starred for the Blue Devils in their 29 to 26 victory over Alabama in the 1945 Sugar Bowl classic, completing five out of eight passes and running well in that contest. Playing with his right elbow in a special brace as the result of a football injury, Cliff tossed the winning touchdown pass as Duke downed unbeaten Georgia Tech, 19-13.

In 1945 Lewis was understudy to Charley O'Rourke at the quarterback post with Fleet City, the national Service champions. He played in the same backfield with Harry Hopp, Buddy Young and Andy Uram. He figured in the first touchdown scored in the All-America Conference when he passed to Mac Speedie in the end zone in the first few minutes of Cleveland's 1946 opener against Miami. In 1947 Cliff doubled in brass by playing at the right halfback position and performed very well. Cliff is a very capable punt returner and in 1948 set an All-America Conference record by returning 26 kicks.

He is married, has a daughter Gayle, and lives in Bay Village, Ohio, a suburb of Cleveland.

LOFLIN, JAMES T. (Jim) — END

Was born in Columbus, Miss., on January 17, 1922. At high school he was a three sport star, playing four years of football, basketball and baseball. He was named captain of each of these squads in his senior year, and was named All-State end in 1941, as well as making the All-State basketball squad at center the same year. He entered the Marines in July of 1943 and was discharged in June of 1946 as a second lieutenant. Fourteen months of this period were served in the Pacific area. Jim attended Louisiana State and participated in four sports, adding the javelin to his other athletic accomplishments. In 1948 he was a point winner on the track team that won the Conference championship.

Loflin is 6'2" in height and plays at around 215 pounds. He is married and at present makes his home in Long Beach, California.

McPEAK, WILLIAM P. (Mac) — END

Born in New Castle, Pennsylvania, July 24, 1926. He played one year as regular end on the New Castle High School team. Enrolled at Notre Dame in 1944, but two weeks later entered the Navy and trained for Aerial gunnery service. He entered Pitt in 1945 and played sparkling ball for four seasons, captained the team in 1948, and was voted most valuable player by teammates two straight years. Mac is a distant relative of Bob Fritzimmons, which may account for his interest in boxing. He is single and still lives in New Castle, Pa.

MOTLEY, MARION — FULLBACK

Was born in Leesburg, Georgia, June 5, 1920. He first attracted the attention of Paul Brown when he was starring for Canton McKinley's football team against Brown's Massillon High School squad. At Canton he was also a member of the basketball club. Jimmy Aiken, who coached him at Canton, brought him to the University of Nevada where he captained the football team and won All-America honorable mention. He entered the Navy and played for Brown at Great Lakes where he sparked the Sailors to their surprise 39-7 decision over Notre Dame in the final game of their 1945 season.

His hard running, especially on Cleveland's famed 32-Trap play, is one of the reasons for the Brown's success the past three years. His bursting into the clear on both the "Trap" and "Draw" has caused many experts to refer to these plays as the Browns' "bread-and-butter" numbers. He has been chosen as fullback on the official All-Conference team for three years. His ball carrying record over this period is as follows:

1946	73	601	8.23	6
1947	146	889	6.09	10

In addition to his rushing record, Motley snared 13 passes for 192 yards and two touchdowns during the 1948 season. He disregarded an injured leg to pick up eighty eight yards against the Brooklyn Dodgers to cinch the rushing title, dethroning Orban "Spec" Sanders in this department.

Motley has been at his best in all of Cleveland's championship contests. In 1946 he scored Cleveland's first touchdown against the Yankees; in 1947 he set up both of his team's touchdowns against New York with long runs. His 51-yard run in the first quarter of that game was the longest gain of the contest. Last year, in the championship game with the Buffalo Bills, Motley lugged the ball for 133 yards and 3 touchdowns. Motley is not only a hard hitting and driving runner but a very fine line backer. This will be Marion's fourth season with the Cleveland Browns. He is married and the father of three boys, Philip, Ronald and Raymond. In the off-season he plays professional basketball. He maintains his home in Cleveland.

O'CONNOR, WILLIAM (Zeke) — END

Born May 2nd, 1926. At New York City's Mt. St. Michael High School Zeke was a 3-sport star playing football, basketball and baseball and winning All-State honors in both football and basketball in 1942 and 1943.

At Notre Dame he played basketball and football, holding down end position on the latter squad.

For the past two years he has starred with the Buffalo Bills of the All-America Conference but was acquired this spring by the Browns.

This will not be Zeke's first stint under Paul Brown. Brown had him at Great Lakes in 1945 when Great Lakes administered the only defeat to Notre Dame.

O'Connor is a 6'4", 219 pounder. He makes his home in Fort Montgomery, New York.

PALMER, DERRELL — TACKLE

Born in Breckenridge, Texas, on August 27, 1922. Played tackle at Albany (Texas) High School for three years, and was named All-District tackle one year. Also won letters in basketball and track at high school. Enrolled at Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, Texas, where he played tackle for three years under Dutch Meyer, and was captain of the football team in his senior year. Made All-Southwest Conference two years as well as several All-American Squads. He entered the Marines in 1943 and was stationed in the Pacific for 24 months. He played on the Navy All-Stars in 1944 in Pearl Harbor where they won 7 and lost 1, and with the Marine All-Stars in 1945. He performed at tackle with the New York Yankees for three years, and was captain of the team in 1947 and 1948. Is married and has one son, Derrell Scott. Makes his home in Cleburne, Texas.

PARSEGHIAN, ARA (par-see'-gee-un) — HALFBACK

Was born in Akron, Ohio, May 21, 1923. At Akron South he lettered in four sports—football, basketball, baseball and golf—and was chosen on the All-City football team. Was inducted into the Navy soon after his high school graduation and did not enter college until 1946, following his release from the Service. While at Great Lakes he played briefly under Paul Brown. Enrolled at Miami University (Oxford, Ohio), he starred for their squad in 1946 and 1947, being chosen on the All-Ohio team each year. In 1947 he sparked Miami to a perfect record and national prominence. In the 1948 Sun Bowl game he starred against Texas Tech before being forced to leave the game by a dislocated shoulder. At Miami he also won monograms in basketball and baseball. Ara, the Cleveland Browns' rookie of the 1948 season, has developed into a very fine ball carrier. In his first season of pro football he gained 135 yards in 32 attempts by rushing, as well as snaring two passes, one of which resulted in a touchdown. Parseghian looks forward to a coaching career when his pro football days are over. He was married at the conclusion of last year's season and makes his home in Akron.

REMENAR, EUGENE (Rem) (rem'-en-er) — TACKLE

Born in Weirton, W. Va., on July 7, 1926. Played tackle for two years on the football squad and center on the basketball team for one year at the Weirton High School winning All-State tackle recognition in 1944. After high school he entered the University of West Virginia at Morgantown, where he played tackle under Coach Dud DeGroot for four years. His biggest thrill was when West Virginia stopped South Carolina on the one yard line. Rem is single and still makes his home in Weirton, W. Va.

RENO, FRANK A. (Chief) — END

Born in Greensburg, Pa., July 31, 1923, and lettered twice at Greensburg High School. He captained the team his second year. Spent four years in the Army Air Force and was discharged in April 1946. That fall he went to West Virginia University, and was used as a quarterback in the single wing. In 1947, they switched to the T and because of his great speed and durability, shifted him to end.He promptly vindicated Coach Kern's judgement by proving himself the outstanding lineman on the squad. Starred in this year's Sun Bowl classic as West Virginia defeated Texas Mines 21-12. Frank still makes his home in Greensburg, is married and has a daughter, Patricia Ann.

RYMKUS, LOU (rim'-cuss) TACKLE

Born November 6, 1919 in Royalton, Illinois. He starred at tackle for Tilden High School in Chicago for four years, winning All-City honors three years plus All-State and most valuable player award in 1938. He was also shotput ace and copped the city heavyweight wrestling crown in 1939. At Notre Dame, where he played under Elmer Layden and Frank Leahy, he received All-America mention, and in 1942 was named the most valuable player on the Irish squad. Lou played tackle for the Washington Redskins in 1943 and was chosen on the all-pro second team in his first year in the National League. He entered the Navy in March, 1944, as athletic instructor and served until early in 1946. He was stationed at Pearl Harbor for nine months, after playing on Bainbridge Naval Training Station's undefeated team in 1944.

Lou is considered one of the greatest offensive tackles in football, and has been a mainstay of the right side of the Cleveland forward wall for three years. He was chosen as one of the tackles on the official All-Conference team in 1947 and again in 1948. He plans to become a coach or a baseball umpire after his football career is ended. For two summers he umpired in Max Carey's All American Girls' Professional Baseball League, and at present employed by a Cleveland automobile agency. He is married and the father of twin boys, Pat and Mike, making his home in Parma Heights, a suburb of Cleveland.

SABAN, LOU (say'-ben) CENTER

Born in Brookfield, Illinois, October 13, 1921. At La Grange (Ill.) High School he was an outstanding player, being chosen on the All-Conference and All-State teams. In 1941 and 1942 he played at Indiana University. He was a blocking quarterback and a terrific line backer. In 1942 he was selected as the Most Valuable individual on the Hoosiers' squad. He captained the team that same year. He was a star performer on the Indiana track team and won Big Ten championships in the shotput and discus. He started for the College All-Stars against Chicago Bears in 1944 and scored one touchdown, place kicked three points after touchdown and backed up the line in sensational fashion. He played with the All-Stars against the Los Angeles Rams in 1946.

Lou entered the Army in 1943 and had attained the rank of first lieutenant at the time of his discharge in 1946. Lou served as an interpreter in China where he was stationed a good part of the time. Saban is considered to be one of the finest line backers in football, and his defensive skill has made him one of the most valuable players on the Browns' squad. He is used solely as a defensive specialist, and his ability to diagnose plays is the finest in the Conference. Lou captained the Cleveland Browns in 1946, 1947 and 1948. He is also a very accurate place kicker, and when Groza was injured during the latter part of the 1947 season, Lou very ably filled the place kicker role.

Saban was married in 1947 and makes his home in Cleveland. At present he is working for his masters degree at Western Reserve University.

SCHRIEBER, JOHN HARRISON — TACKLE

Was born on December 5, 1925 in Bradford, Pa. He attended Portville (N. Y.) Central High and lettered in football and basketball. He captained his high school football for two years and his team didn't lose a game in the three years he played. He played four years of college football, one year at Union College, and three years at Marietta College where he enrolled after three years service with the Navy. Jack is single and makes his home in Smethport, Pa.

SENSANBAUGHER, DEAN — HALFBACK

Born in Midvale, Ohio, August 12, 1925. Won 12 letters in football, basketball and track at Uhrichsville (O.) High School. Played as a freshman on the Ohio State varsity under Paul Brown in 1943, his outstanding feat being a 96 yard run against a vastly superior Great Lakes Club. Played for the East against the West in the annual New Year's Day battle at San Francisco in 1944 and was the individual star of that contest that wound up in a 13-13 tie. Early in 1944, Sensanbaugher was appointed to the U. S. Military Academy. Played with the 1944 Army eleven that was unbeaten. Entered the Army in April 1945 and was discharged 18 months later. Returned to Ohio State but was handicapped during the 1947 season by an injury. Dean makes his home in Uhrichsville, Ohio.

SHANKLE, JOHN C. (Jack) — FULLBACK

Born in New Bethlehem, Pa., on March 16, 1925. Played four years in high school and captained the team in his senior year. Jack served as a gunner in the Army Air Froce, entering the service in 1943 and being discharged three years later. The following three years, he starred for Grove City College and this year is making his professional debut. Shankle is single and lives in New Bethlehem, Pa.

SHEEHAN, MELBOURNE R. (Mick) — END

Born in St. Louis, Missouri on December 27, 1923. Starred at Normandy High in football, track, basketball, and baseball. Holds St. Louis District discus record—152 feet. Entered Missouri in 1942, where he played freshman football. Spent thirty months in Naval Aviation and played with the Chapel Hill Pre-Flight and Pensacola Naval Air Station squads. Resumed his studies at University of Missouri in 1946. Played varsity ball in 1946-47-48. He was All-Conference end in 1947 and 1948. Led the Big Seven in pass receiving in 1948. Also captained the track squad in 1948, capturing the Big Seven discus crown. Went to Olympic finals in Evanston last summer. Is married and lives in St. Louis.

SPEEDIE, MAC (Speed) — END

Born in Odell, Illinois, January 12, 1920. He played both football and basketball at South High School in Salt Lake City, Utah, and was named All-Star back as well as All-City cage center in 1937. He played for three seasons at the University of Utah where he was selected on the All-Rocky Mountain Conference team. While at the University of Utah he set a Conference mark of 23.2 in the 220 yard low hurdles and is co-holder of the 120 yard high hurdle mark of 14.4 seconds.

Entered the Army in March 1942 and was discharged as a first lieutenant in June, 1946. While in the Army he participated in football, basketball and track. It was when he was with the Ft. Warren squad that he first came to Paul Brown's attention, when Brown's Great Lakes team engaged the soldiers. Mac Speedie played a great game against the Bluejackets, and Brown ticketed him then and there as "a good one." With the Browns, Speedie is considered one of the outstanding pass receivers in pro football. Teamed up with Dante Lavelli, the combination is probably the most formidable set of defensive ends in the history of the game. His three year record is as follows:

	Passes Received	Yards Gained	Touchdown Passes
1946	24	564	7
1947	67	1146	6
1948	58	816	4
TOTALS:	149	2526	17

Mac won the 1947 All-America Conference pass receiving title and repeated again in 1948 despite the fact that he was out of two games with injuries. He has the distinction of scoring the first touchdown in the All-America Conference when he took a pass from Cliff Lewis in the early minutes of the opener against Miami in 1946. He also holds the record for the longest gain in the All-America Conference on a pass play when he took a screen pass from Otto Graham and ran the length of the field. It is recorded as a 99-yard gain since Cleveland had the ball on its own one-yard line, although Speedie actually caught the ball just behind the goal line. He was chosen on the All-Conference team in 1947 and 1948. He is also a good punter.

Speedie is married, has a son, Mike, and lives in Mayfield Heights, a suburb of Cleveland.

SPENCER, JOE — TACKLE

Born in Cleveland County, Oklahoma, August 15, 1923. Played tackle on the Capitol Hill High School team in Oklahoma City for three years. He served in the Army for three years in the European theatre and after discharge entered Oklahoma A & M where he earned three letters and captained the team in his senior year. Played in the Shrine East-West game on January 1, 1948. Coach Brown acquired Joe from the Brooklyn Dodgers where he played in 1948. Is married and has one son, Joseph. He makes his home in Stillwater, Oklahoma.

SUSTERSIC, EDWARD (Foozy) (sus-ter'-sick) FULLBACK

Born in Cleveland, Ohio, January 7, 1922. He played fullback at John Marshall High School and was city scholastic heavyweight champion in 1941. He served in the Army Air Corps for three and a half years. After his discharge, he returned to Findlay College where he had previously enrolled after high school graduation. He captained the football and wrestling teams at Findlay during his final two years there. He was awarded the Jack Dempsey trophy as the outstanding athlete at Findlay in 1947.

At training camp last year, Foozy had apparently cinched a berth until a broken arm side lined him.

Sustersic is single and resides in Cleveland.

TEMPLETON, DAVID I. (Dad) GUARD

Born in Aylesbury, England, September 10, 1921. Although he played but one year of football at Mansfield (Ohio) High School, he is considered a Mansfield product. At Ohio State he soon won respect as one of the Western Conference's toughest defensive guards. He was durable, too, and his 327 minutes playing time led all linemen. Starred in East's 14-12 win over the West in the Annual Shrine game at San Francisco on New Year's Day. Captained the Bucks in 1948. Was named the team's most valuable player in 1947. Before moving to Mansfield, three scholastic years were played at Baltimore, Md. Friends School. "Dad" was a first lieutenant Army Air Force B-24 pilot having 3½ years' service. He is single and lives in Bedford, Indiana.

THOMPSON, THOMAS W. (Tommy) CENTER

Was born in Jersey City, N. J., January 6, 1927. He prepped at Woodbridge (N. J.) High School where he played football, basketball and baseball. He was used at guard and fullback, and captained the football and baseball teams in his senior year. He was on the All-State squad at that time.

After a hitch in the Army, Tom entered William & Mary College and played center for four years. He was named All-Southern center for three years, as well as being named on one of the Associated Press All-American squads. In 1948 he was voted the outstanding collegiate athlete of New Jersey by the Newark Athletic Club.

Tom was vice-president of his freshman class in college, and is at present working towards his masters degree at William & Mary. The redheaded Army vet is married and now makes his home in Norfolk, Va.

ULINSKI, EDWARD F. (Ulie) (you-lin'-skee) GUARD

Born in Pittsburgh, December 7, 1920. He played tackle on Ambridge (Pa.) High School team for three years, serving as captain in his senior year. He won All-County honors in 1936 and 1937. He also played varsity guard on the school's cage team. At Marshall College he starred at three positions, end, blocking back and guard. Ed was named to the mythical All-State team in 1940 and in 1941 gaining little All-America mention in the last year.

He entered the service on May 7, 1942, and four years later, May 7, 1946, he was discharged as a captain in the Army Air Forces. He played with Glenn Dobbs on the Second Air Force team in 1944 and with the Fourth Air Force eleven in 1945. He served six months in the West Indies during which time his B-29 made a forced landing in Cuba. In his three seasons with the Browns, he has proved to be a very valuable offensive performer whose great blocking opened many a hole for Motley, Jones & Co.

Ed is married and makes his home in Cleveland.

WILLIS, BILL (Deacon) — GUARD

Born in Columbus, Ohio, October 5, 1921. At high school he competed in football, basketball and track winning All-Conference honors in football in 1940. Played at Ohio State from 1942 through 1944, including Paul Brown's Western Conference and national championship eleven of 1942. He was selected All Big Ten Tackle in 1943 and 1944 and made most of the All-America honor elevens in 1944. He won two track letters at Ohio State running in the 60 and 100 yard dash events. He coached Kentucky State College football team in 1945, but decided to enter the pro ranks before resuming his coaching career.

With the Browns, Willis has been an outstanding lineman whose fine play has earned him a position on the All-Conference team for the past three seasons. He is one of the fastest charging linemen in football. He has a great sense of humor and an endless store of anecdotes about his season of coaching. This will be his fourth season with the Browns.

He is married and makes his home in Cleveland.

YONAKOR, JOHN (Jumbo) (yon'-uh-cur) — END

Born in Boston, Mass., August 4, 1921. "Jumbo" climaxed a long uphill fight in 1943 when his pass-catching prowess and defensive tactics with Notre Dame won him a place on most of the All-America selections. Just 11 years before, doctors had feared Yonakor would never walk again as a result of a serious leg infection. Plenty of exercise and determination enabled John to overcome his ailment. He scored Notre Dame's first two touchdowns on passes from Johnny Lujack when the Irish whipped Army, 26 to 9 in 1943.

He started for the College All-Stars against the Chicago Bears in 1944 and played with the Collegians against the Los Angeles Rams in 1946. He enlisted in the Marines June 6, 1942 and was discharged in May, 1946, serving in the Southwest Pacific. He played football for Camp LeJeune Marines in 1944 and with the Marine All-Stars who opposed an all star Army unit at Hawaii in 1945. He co-captained the Notre Dame track team in 1943 and won the National A. A. U. shotput championship (indoors) in 1944, and was victorious in the Hawaiian A. A. U. meet the next season.

John is the Browns' regular defensive right end and is considered one of the most reliable defensive workmen in the League. This will be his fourth year with the Cleveland Club.

He is single and makes his home in Dorchester, Massachusetts.

YOUNG, GEORGE (Pordy) — END

Born in Wilkes Barre, Pennsylvania, May 10, 1924. He lettered in football, track and wrestling at Wilkes Barre High, winning the Pennsylvania State High School heavyweight wrestling crown. Young played football at the University of Georgia. In 1943, he entered the Navy and played football for Paul Brown at Great Lakes in 1944 and 1945, and was a member of the Fleet City Bluejacket eleven which won the national service title.

Young is the Browns regular defensive left end. He has developed into one of the most outstanding defensive ends in the game today and his efficiency rating on assignments is one of the highest on the Cleveland squad. This is his fourth year with the Browns.

He is married and makes his home in Cleveland, O.

ZABORAC, TOM (Zab) — BACK

Was born in Canton, Illinois, on January 30, 1926. At Canton (Ill.) High School he monogramed 16 times in football, basketball, baseball and track. In 1943 he won All-State honors in football and was voted the most valuable player on his team. In 1944 he was named to the All-South Basketball team. Zab, a dash man, took third place in the 220-yard dash at the State Meet in 1944. He played his college football at the University of Illinois and Western State Teachers College. With the Illini he played in the Rose Bowl game of 1947. Zab is 6 foot tall, weighs 198 pounds. Is married and has a year old son, Edward. He makes his home in Canton, Illinois.
